A doctor who placed her child for adoption years before gets a second chance to be a mother...

I chose adoption for my baby girl because I knew it was best for her. For eight years I lived for the yearly letters I received from her parents. When the letters stopped, I feared something bad had happened. When detectives located the now motherless child and her dad, I relocated my practice to Jackson Hole to be near. I vowed to keep my distance but staying away from Chloe and her hunky contractor dad proved impossible. Right now, I'm living the fairy-tale. But I can't keep lying to my daughter and her dad. When the secret comes out, will that be the end...or a new beginning?
