She wasn't tall and had wonderful hair and a no nonsense attitude and she came from out of nowhere and lit up the bar with her personality. People liked her.

I'd just finished playing a song I wrote at the open mic and was putting my guitar away. Sometimes we meet someone who literally reflects why we write love songs at all.

“ Hey, “ she said. “ Who do you think you are? You haven’t said hello all night. Do you think you’re something special? “
