

Masterclass In Crime Writing By Members Of The Detection Club

Crime writing has always been a popular genre that captivates readers with its intricate plots, suspenseful narratives, and clever detectives. It takes a skilled writer to create a compelling crime story that keeps audiences hooked from start to finish. For aspiring crime writers looking to learn from the best, the Masterclass in Crime Writing by Members of the Detection Club is an unparalleled opportunity.

What is the Detection Club?

The Detection Club is an exclusive society of crime writers founded in 1930 by a group of influential authors, including Agatha Christie, Dorothy L. Sayers, and G.K. Chesterton. The club was established to bring together the best minds in crime fiction and provide a platform for collaboration and shared knowledge.

Over the decades, the Detection Club has included renowned authors such as Raymond Chandler, P.D. James, and Colin Dexter, among many others. With such a rich history and an impressive lineup of members, it's no wonder that the Masterclass in Crime Writing organized by the club is highly sought after by aspiring writers.
