Kate Adler led a quiet life as a computer analyst, never expecting someone would want to kill her, and the assassin never expected Kate's own brand of justice.

One day Kate decrypts an encoded message exposing Iran's secret plans to start a war by triggering a global market crash. In Germany, she narrowly escapes an assassination attempt by an Iranian hit team with the help of Brad Danner, an ongoing romantic interest.

While running for her life in Europe with Brad, Kate learns she's head of the Cartel, a secret organization founded by her late father. Armed with the group's special forces, a deep surveillance capability, and the Cartel's unique methods, Kate becomes the hunter. In a suspense-filled journey of espionage, suspense, and danger, Kate's confidence grows as she attempts to stop a war while pursuing those who tried to kill her.

You'll love this story because we enjoy seeing good triumph over evil —especially when, at first, it appears highly unlikely.

If you like action thrillers like L.T. Ryan's Jack Noble or Vince Fynn's Mitch Rapp, you will find Kate Adler's style of confronting injustice a rewarding read. Enjoy it today.
