An Unforgettable Protagonist

Lily, the central character, is a remarkable force to reckon with. Strong, determined, and vulnerable all at once, she immerses us in her every emotion. As she navigates the treacherous paths of this unseen realm, we witness her growth, her resilience, and her unwavering spirit. Lily becomes a beacon of hope amidst the encroaching darkness, reminding us of the strength that lies within us all.

The way Lily is portrayed is a true testament to Emily Smith's skill as a writer. The character's complexities are portrayed with such depth and authenticity that we can't help but form an attachment to her. She is not just a character; she is someone we root for, someone we want to see find her place in this mystical world.

A Gripping Plotline

The Dark Fae Trilogy introduces us to a suspenseful, edge-of-your-seat storyline that will leave readers yearning for more. Stolen By Darkness sets the stage for an epic battle between light and dark, good and evil, as Lily uncovers secrets that have the power to change everything she knows. The plot twists and turns, keeping us guessing until the very last sentence.

Emily Smith masterfully constructs a narrative that is as unpredictable as it is engaging. This book is not just a mere tale – it's an intricate web of mystery, intrigue, and heart-pounding action. As Lily's journey unfolds, we find ourselves fully invested in her quest and eager to see how she overcomes the challenges thrown her way.

With the unique ability to see pixies, trolls, and Fae comes danger. And Serafina Richards is about to learn just how much.

Off to college with her best friend, Sera can't wait to embark on new adventures, but she never expected one of them would involve her being stolen away by Fae sentries.

Upon arriving in Fae territory, she learns her fate isn't to become a nurse, as she had always dreamed, but rather to compete against twenty-three other women in a contest full of untold danger and high-risk tasks.

She can return to Earth and a normal life if she completes the contest victorious, but dangerous forests, life-threatening obstacles, and soul-sucking monsters are the least of Sera's worries. The Seelie Prince and Unseelie King have taken an interest in her, and it's marked her as enemy number one to her fellow contestants.

Fans of Bella Forrest and Faith Hunter will be glued to the pages as they read to find out if Sera will finish the contest...or be stuck in the Fae Realm forever in STOLEN BY DARKNESS by USA Today bestselling author Samantha Britt.
