REVIEWS

Heroic Fantasy Quarterly

"Adventure fiction in the classic style, Zoltan's tale will take you from the mundane and into a world of magic and mystery not seen since the glory days of the pulps."

Black Gate Magazine

"A catman, a mothwoman, and an eerie blue lamp figure in Robert Zoltan's very fun and self-illustrated (well one picture anyway) "The Blue Lamp." For any fan of S&S those three things should be enough to make you read the story. We know what we like and when we seen it we flock to it like, well, moths."

Tangent Online Review Magazine

"...an action packed sword and sorcery tale, needing only a premise and an enemy to defeat in order to accomplish its goal. To this end the prose, the dialogue, and characters do their part smoothly and come together to give the lesson that two swords are always better than one."

Adventures Fantastic Blog

"This story was a lot of fun; Blue and Dareon Vin are a pair I would like to see more of."
