Maxwell Barnes is an archeologist and the son of an archeologist. He and his companion, friend, and brother since youth, Axel Morales, have been treasure hunting for their benefactor Myron Crabtree, in the jungles of Guatemala.

This area, not coincidentally, is also rumored to be the location of the last great city of the Maya, the legendary Ahum. When Max meets a man who appears to be a young Mayan skateboard punk, his entire world is turned upside down as he hears the true story of the city's demise, and of the Crystal of Ahum, lost then but supposedly capable of restoring the ancient Mayan empire.

Along the way he also meets Isabel García, a Spanish beauty who is far more than meets the eye, and a man named Estrada – who could be the evildest person on the planet.

Adventure, romance, and more than a little excitement all await you in book one of The Crystal of Ahum: Mayan Shadows!
