One of Tannahill's most notable works is "Declarations" - a groundbreaking performance that challenges societal norms and pushes the boundaries of traditional theater. This immersive experience takes the audience on a thought-provoking journey through personal stories of love, loss, and self-discovery. With its powerful narrative and innovative staging, "Declarations" has captivated audiences all around the globe.

Breaking Barriers with Artistic Collaboration

Tannahill's artistic endeavors go beyond traditional theater productions. He is also known for his collaborations with various artists, both nationally and internationally, creating impactful and thought-provoking works that transcend cultural boundaries. His ability to connect different art forms, such as theater, film, dance, and visual arts, has opened up new possibilities for artistic expression.

Through his collaborations, Tannahill emphasizes the importance of unity and diversity in the arts. He believes that by breaking down barriers and embracing different perspectives, society can better understand complex issues and foster empathy. This inclusive approach to art has earned him praise for his ability to create captivating and deeply moving experiences.

The Evolution of a Visionary

Tannahill's artistic evolution is evident in his body of work. His early plays, such as "Late Company" and "Botticelli in the Fire," showcase his talent for capturing the raw emotions of human experiences. These productions tackle relevant social issues, including bullying, sexuality, and the complexities of relationships.

As Tannahill explored new forms of expression, his work became more experimental and multidimensional. He ventured into filmmaking with "Threads," a visually stunning and emotionally evocative short film that further cemented his reputation as an artistic visionary.

In addition to his contributions to the performing arts, Tannahill has also made significant strides in literature. His debut novel, "Liminal," is a coming-of-age story that beautifully combines elements of fiction, poetry, and personal reflection.

The Future of Artistic Expression

Jordan Tannahill has undoubtedly left a profound impact on the world of art. His fearless approach to storytelling and his ability to connect with audiences on a profound emotional level have transformed the way we perceive and experience art.

As he continues to push the boundaries of artistic expression, one can only imagine what Tannahill's future holds. With each project, he challenges societal norms, inspires creative thinking, and encourages us to embrace our own unique voices.

Through his art, Tannahill reminds us that the power of artistic expression can shape the world around us, provoke conversations, and ignite change. He exemplifies the true essence of creativity - an unyielding spirit that knows no boundaries and inspires us all to embrace our artistic potential.

This is a pressed bruise. This is Greta Garbo's smile. This is the smell of Windex. Declarations is an imperfect chronicle of a life lived; a body pulled through time, encountering meteorological phenomenon, mythology, political calamity, pop culture, and everyday happenstance along the way. Written in the wake of his mother's terminal cancer diagnosis, Tannahill's Declarations is a staggering archive of sensations, memories, and voices asserting that here lived, for a time, a woman.

Jordan Tannahill is an Ottawa-born, London UK–based playwright and filmmaker. His work has been presented at major theaters and festivals across Canada and internationally.
