Vignettes - Simple set - 30 minutes

[Minimum of 20 performers, including at least 4 boys]

"I've had better. Much better. Sneakier. Sit beside me at lunch, pretend to be my friend. Bolder. They try to drag me into the bathroom. Meaner. Spit at me. Knock books out of my arms. Pinch me. Treat me like a piece of garbage, think it's funny to try and make me eat garbage, be garbage."

This play looks at the bullied, the bully, and the bystander through mostly non-verbal vignettes. Life for the bullied is like a funhouse, but the funhouse is anything but fun.

How can you stand your ground when you're on a falling floor? How can you move forward when you're caught like a mouse in a maze? How can you win Whac-A-Mole when you're the mole? How can you like yourself while standing in a distorted hall of mirrors?
