Glory — Who up and moves to another state where they don't know anyone and don't have a job or a place to live? Me, that's who. When I heard Devil's Fury was running an underground clinic for women like me -- victims of boys pretending to be men -- I knew I had to be a part of it. What I didn't count on was falling for an alpha biker with a heart of gold or turning to mush every time he holds my daughter. There's more to Wolf than most people realize, and now that he's decided I'm his and he's mine, I'm holding on and never letting go. I won't even let a killer stand in the way of my happily-ever-after.

Wolf -- When my ex left for greener pastures I should have been broken-hearted. So why wasn't I? One look at the angel who walks into Church and I know... Glory's meant to be mine, and so is her adorable little girl. Just one problem. Well, two. She's skittish -- she's been badly hurt by men before, and I'm not exactly a prize. I came back from the war broken physically and mentally. I know Glory can do better. But I always get what I want, and I want Glory. When someone tries to destroy my new family, I know I'll do whatever it takes to keep them safe... even if it means letting Glory see the darkness inside me.

WARNING: Wolf's story is part of the Devil's Fury MC series and contains some violence, bad language, sensitive issues, and adult situations. Guaranteed happily-ever-after, a baby who will steal your heart, no cheating, and no cliffhanger.
